

Huniverse (Integrated Digital Ecosystem)

Have you discovered HuniVerse yet, the Global Integrated Digital Ecosystem, platform where community, business, and technology meet?

On HuniVerse, anyone can sell, buy, post products, services or publications for free through the Community Open Market, and use Messaging to connect instantly with customers, vendors, and other users, all in one place with creating at least a simple user account “Standard user”.

No subscription needed, no limits, just opportunities to connect, share, and grow your visibility online.

Whether you're a small business, an individual seller, or simply curious, HuniVerse is your digital space to reach the world, in the case you need, you can upgrade to Vendor status for more functionalities or features

The Vendors can manage their own space on HuniVerse and stay connected with customers.

For those who have the Hotels and restaurants, HuniVerse is best place for their work because the customers can make booking (reservation) and interact with them within HuniVerse for different steps of confirmation and delivered by the features sated.

On HuniVerse, Those whose give the product or services and those who need them, can interact by messaging starting by product or services available on HuniVerse or not.
